

Tree C1A: William KISBY and Martha of Chatteris and descendants

William and Martha (SKEELES) KISBY had several children baptised in Chatteris, Cambridgeshire between 1740 and 1753. The eldest, Edward KISBY (chr.1740) is a good match for the Edward KISBY (1740-1822) who became a Dairy Farmer of Chatteris and fathered a long line of KISBYs [see Tree C1B]. Presumably William's father may have been a Edward KISBY too – it is a common name in the area stretching back to the 17th century.

C1A.1	KISBY William [0244]	GENERATION 1 Judging by the name of William's first child, Edward, he is probably son of an Edward KISBY of Chatteris or Whittlesey. Married Martha SKEELES, 28 December 1739, Chatteris. ¹
	SKEELES Martha [0245]	Likely death 1754, Chatteris. ²
