

Tree H1A: John KISBY and Sarah of Pidley and descendants

John and Sarah (BARNS) KISBY appear to baptise only one child, John, in Pidley, Huntingdonshire in 1755. John, in turn, appears to marry in nearby Houghton in 1781. He possibly marries twice, the second time in Pidley in 1783. Because both wives were called Ann, it becomes difficult to know which Ann is the mother to John's children. This was evidently a family with means, because the marriages were carried out by license and, later, John (1783-1867) becomes a wealthy farmer and town mayor.
