

Tree IR1A: Richard KISBEY and Mary Ann of Dublin (Ireland) and descendants

Richard and Mary Ann (SCOTT) KISBEY originated in the Dublin area, where their children were born. Sometime in later life they moved to England, where several of their children were already settled. Nothing is certain about the origins of the Dublin KISBEYS. Possibly Richard's parents had moved to Ireland as part of the British administration - Richard seems well-to-do and worked in the legal profession. His family appear to be Protestant, not Catholic, suggesting they originate from mainland Britain.

IR1A.1	KISBEY Richard [0970]	GENERATION 1 Born circa 1792, Dublin, Ireland. ¹ Married Mary Ann SCOTT, date and place unknown. Later an attorney's clerk of Dublin In 1844 Kisbey had his master, a respected attorney called William Osbrey, arrested because Osbrey owed him money. Osbrey was very ill and pleaded not to be taken to prison, offering the full money plus £1. Kisby refused and Osbrey died in prison a few days later. ² Possibly a Diamond Merchant. ³ Living in 1871 in Brixton, Surrey, with his wife and sons. ⁴ Died circa February 1872 age 79, probably Brixton, Surrey.
	SCOTT Mary Ann (Marion) [0971]	Born circa 1807, Dublin, Ireland Daughter of James SCOTT. ⁵ Widowed age "73" (called Marion) living with son Richard in Clapham, Surrey in 1881. ⁶ Died circa November 1890 age "82", Islington area ⁷ (possibly living with son James).
