

Tree N2A: William KISBY and Elizabeth of Etton and descendants

William and Elizebeth (BENINGTON) KISBY baptised children in Etton, Northamptonshire, a short distance south of the Northamptonshire/Lincolnshire border. Their children included a William and Robert, whose baptisms match the approximate year of birth of probable brothers William (1761-1842) and Robert KISBY (1774-1825) who appeared just north of the Northamptonshire/Lincolnshire border, in Langtoft, Lincolnshire, in the early 1800s.

Robert KISBY of Langtoft, Lincolnshire, was possibly a Shepherd or Farmer. His tombstone still stands in Langtoft (St Michael) churchyard, protected from the elements by a large tree. His two sons, William and Joseph, have large families who carry on the KISBY name into the 20th century.
